

Considering a Career in Massage Therapy?

Ashland Institute of Massage Invites You

Annual Open House

The Ashland Institute of Massage (AIM) is hosting an Open House for prospective students. Come meet our school and instructors! We'll talk about our educational program, the student experience, Oregon licensing requirements, and what a career in massage therapy can mean in your life. You'll have an opportunity to meet and ask questions of the staff and recent graduates of the program. We'll take a tour of the school and enjoy some refreshments. Please bring your friends and family for this informative event!
